

```

from django.http import HttpResponse
from fleximembers.models import FlexiCashMember from loanapplication.models import MemberLoanApplication, LoanProduct from transactions.models import Transaction from decimal import Decimal
from lipanampesa.utils import initiate_stk_push # Import the function to trigger STK Push from
from django.utils import timezone
from logging import getLogger
from django.http import JsonResponse from intasend import APIService
from logging import getLogger
from django.conf import settings

Initialize IntaSend APIService with sandbox/test mode enabled service = APIService(token=settings.INSTASEND_SECRET_KEY, publishable_key=settings.INSTASEND_PUBLISHABLE_KEY, test=True)

def repay_loan_handler(request, session_id, phone_number, text):
    parts = text.split("")
    member = FlexiCashMember.objects.filter(phone=phone_number).first()
    if member:
        # Format phone number
        # First, ask for repayment option
        if len(parts) == 1:
            response = "CON Please select repayment option:\n1. Full Payment\n2. Partial Payment"
            # If "Full payment" is selected, ask for PIN
            elif len(parts) == 2 and parts[1] == "1":
                response = "CON Enter your PIN to confirm full repayment."
            # If "Partial payment" is selected, ask for amount
            elif len(parts) == 2 and parts[1] == "2":
                response = "CON Enter amount for partial repayment:"
            # If PIN is entered for full repayment
            elif len(parts) == 3 and parts[1] == "1":
                amount = Decimal(parts[2])
                pin = parts[3]
                if pin == member.pin:
                    loan = MemberLoanApplication.objects.filter(member=member, payment_complete=False).first()
                    if loan:
                        if member.member_balance == Decimal('0.00'):
                            response = f"END Amount exceeds your loan balance of : {loan.outstanding_balance}."
                        else:
                            response = f"END STK Push has been initiated successfully."
                            stk_response = service.collect.mpesa_stk_push(
                                phone_number='254799043853',
                                # phone_number=member.phone.lstrip('+'),
                                email=member.email,
                                amount=float(loan.outstanding_balance),
                                narrative=loan.application_ref )
                            print(stk_response)
                            invoice_id = stk_response['invoice']['invoice_id']
                            if invoice_id:
                                print("This is the invoice Id : ", invoice_id)
                                # Create transaction record
                                Transaction.objects.create( member=member, loan=loan, amount=amount, transaction_type="Repayment", repayment_type="Full" )
                                # response = "END Your loan has been fully repaid. Thank you! STK Push initiated, awaiting confirmation."
                                else:
                                    response = "END Payment initiation failed. Please try again."
                                else:
                                    response = "END Incorrect PIN. Please try again."
                                # If amount is entered for partial repayment
                                elif len(parts) == 3 and parts[1] == "2":
                                    amount = Decimal(parts[2])
                                    response = f"CON Enter your PIN to confirm partial repayment of {amount}."
                                # If PIN and amount are entered for partial repayment
                                elif len(parts) == 4 and parts[1] == "2":
                                    amount = Decimal(parts[2])
                                    pin = parts[3]
                                    if pin == member.pin:
                                        loan = MemberLoanApplication.objects.filter(member=member, payment_complete=False).first()
                                        if loan:
                                            # Ensure repayment doesn't exceed loan balance if amount > loan.outstanding_balance:
                                            response = f"END Amount exceeds the loan balance. Remaining balance: {loan.outstanding_balance}."
                                            else:
                                                # Initiate STK Push for partial repayment
                                                response = f"END STK Push has been initiated successfully."
                                                stk_response = service.collect.mpesa_stk_push(
                                                    phone_number='254799043853',
                                                    amount=float(amount),
                                                    narrative=loan.application_ref,
                                                    # phone_number=member.phone.lstrip('+'),
                                                    # email=member.email,
                                                    # narrative=loan.application_ref )
                                                    invoice_id = stk_response['invoice']['invoice_id'] amount_paid = stk_response['invoice']['net_amount'] state = stk_response['invoice']['state'] account = stk_response['invoice']['account']
                                                    if invoice_id:
                                                        print("This is the invoice Id : ", invoice_id)
                                                        # Create transaction record
                                                        Transaction.objects.create(
                                                            member=member, loan=loan, amount=float(amount_paid), transaction_type="Repayment",
                                                            repayment_type="Partial",
                                                            narrative=invoice_id,
                                                            status=state, )
                                                        # response = f"END Partial repayment of {amount} has been received. Remaining balance is {loan.outstanding_balance}."
                                                        else:
                                                            response = "END Payment initiation failed. Please try again."
                                                        else:
                                                            response = "END No active loan found for repayment."
                                                        else:
                                                            response = "END Incorrect PIN. Please try again."
                                # If no valid option is selected
                                else:
                                    response = "END Invalid option. Please try again."
                                else:
                                    response = "END Member not found. Please register first."
                                return HttpResponse(response, content_type="text/plain")

```